APPLICATION PART 2 – Short Answer/Essay

Submit the Short Answer/Essay portion of the application by attaching answers as a Word Document or PDF and e-mail to: katherine.le@apraxia101.org

SHORT ANSWER

1. What advice can you give to parents of children with Apraxia who are just beginning their formal school years?
2. What advice can you give to young children with Apraxia?
3. What was the biggest challenge you faced having Apraxia that you were able to overcome? How did you overcome this challenge?
4. Elaborate on any ways you have promoted, supported, or participated in Apraxia awareness?

ESSAY

Facing challenges in life will make you stronger and give you opportunities to learn lessons you would have never learned without those challenges. From your experience, what are the ways that having Apraxia has made you stronger and what lessons have you learned from facing the challenge of having Apraxia?

APPLICATION PART 3 – Video

Submit the video portion of the application as a video attachment to: katherine.le@apraxia101.org

VIDEO

Submit a video of yourself speaking to others who are affected by Childhood Apraxia of Speech.

The video you submit:

- should be no longer than 2 minutes in length
- can include: answering the questions from the short answer portion of the application, sharing your essay, sharing words of encouragement you may have for those new to the Apraxia diagnosis (these are not all required, but are only suggestions if needed)
- will be used to inspire others who have Apraxia, and to encourage parents of young children with Apraxia
- will be posted on the Apraxia 101 Facebook and web page, and on the Apraxia 101 Vimeo page

Please check that the lighting and sound quality of the video is good.
